

Weekend Bulletin

December 10-11, 2005

Coast Confidential

with Regina King and Peter Flowers

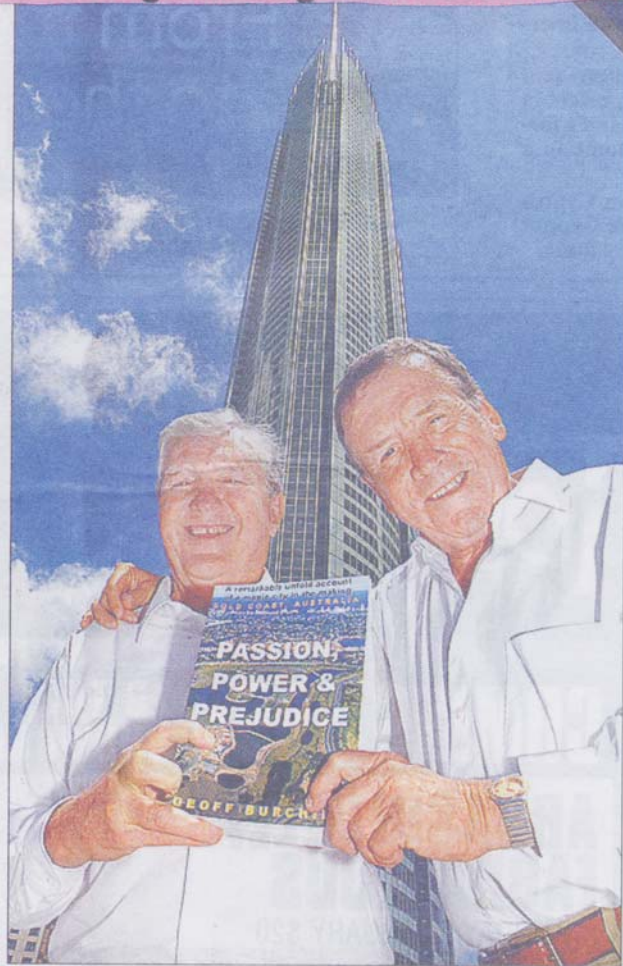

Return to the good old days

A FEW moments of indulgence if you're a recent arrival to the Gold Coast.

Besides the official launch of Geoff Burchill's book at Q1, the best thing about being there was seeing so many friendly faces who were so much a part of the Gold Coast becoming the city it is today.

Fay Hinze looks exactly as we remember her and doesn't seem to have changed or aged a bit.

Ivan and Doris Gibbs, Ken Newton, Ron Burrows, Jock McIlwain, Brian Shepherd, Terry Morris, Paul Randall, Terry Jackman, Gordon Douglas, Brian Harrower and John Campbell were all there enjoying the chance to catch up with old friends and laugh about the good old days.

Geoff Burchill and Terry Jackman at the launch